Limitations of Use

The information provided on KLEENGUARD* Overalls in this website is intended for general guidance only, please refer to instructions for use.

KLEENGUARD* Overalls are not sterile and should not be used in hazardous conditions where exposure to ultra fine particles, corrosive chemicals, toxic substances, poisonous fumes/vapours or radiation is present.

Intensive liquid sprays, biohazards or high temperatures, will require greater protection than that offered by KLEENGUARD* Overalls. In all conditions, alternative suitable protection should be used for the face, hands and feet, together with respiratory equipment where required.

Do not wear KLEENGUARD* Overalls if torn, faulty or damaged in any way (see No Quibble Guarantee).

It is the responsibility of the user to ensure that KLEENGUARD* Overalls meet the specific requirements of its intended use and complies with any statutory or regulatory requirements or acceptable standards.

Kimberly-Clark Australia Pty Ltd and its distributors cannot guarantee product performance if garment usage is inconsistent with information on this website and contained in the product brochure and accepts no responsibility for improper use of KLEENGUARD* Overalls and subject to law give no warranties as to the product except as expressly set out above.
